

Santa Clarita Runners Presents:

3RD ANNUAL BEAST CHARITY RUN/WALK

To Benefit the Santa Clarita Valley Food Pantry

When: Saturday, December 12, 2009 at 7:30 a.m.
Where: Whitney Canyon Park — The Beast is a dirt-and-gravel fire road that begins at the park-and-ride where Newhall Avenue (formerly San Fernando Road) dead-ends just east of Highway 14
Roundtrip Distance: 9.72 miles
Starting Elevation: 1,100 feet above sea level
Peak Elevation: 3,864 feet at the summit of Los Pinetos Peak
Edibles: Oranges (Whole Foods Market), bagels (Western Bagel) and water (Castaic Water Agency) will be provided at the base
No Prizes: ALL FUNDS will go directly to the SCV Food Pantry

IMPORTANT COURSE INFO

The course is tough. It is strongly recommended that you run/walk with others and don't do more than what is comfortable and healthy for your condition. In fact, you can stay home and pledge/pay based on someone else's efforts. We'd like to see you, but we'd like to see your check just as much.

ENTRY FEE

$20, payable to Santa Clarita Runners. While race-day registration is OK, we prefer to receive your funds at least 72 hours prior to the event to guarantee you receive your preferred size "I CONQUERED THE BEAST 2009" unisex 100% cotton "blue dusk" T-shirt. Come out and join the fun, or pledge at home from the comfort of your plush easy chair and still receive the coveted, much-sought-after Beast T-shirt — your local community will benefit either way!

T-Shirts Generously Donated By:
